INTRODUCTION TO VOLUME 1

This is a listing of those men who served in the militia during the War of 1812. It was abstracted from the muster, pay and receipt rolls held by the National Archives and originally published by Family Line Publications in 1979 and from the Commission Book and other data found in the Adjutant General files of the Maryland State Archives. In this latest printing the earlier version of 1979 was scanned and notable corrections made. This volume will afford the user a virtually complete roster of those on active militia service allowing for a small portion of incomplete or missing rolls.

An extensive listing of Maryland militiamen was made by Louis Diehlman when he edited William M. Marine's British Invasion of Maryland, 1812- 1815. Diehlman added an appendix to Marines's narrative account of the war in which he listed alphabetically many of the Maryland militiamen. The rolls held by the National Archives were unavailable to Diehlman at that time. As a result less than half of the Maryland militiamen were included.

Remarks and annotations have been included which may shed light on the individual or his unit's involvement in the War. Remarks citing sickness or short periods of authorized leave have been omitted in most cases.

These abstracts have been organized regionally in order to aid the researcher in locating a particular veteran. Regiments and Cavalry districts were established according to county boundaries. Although districts were formed within counties coinciding with the regimental and company organizations, most of the descriptions of these boundaries have not survived. Clues to the general area of a company can be found in the annotations and by associating the names of the members with the 1810 federal census. In looking for a veteran in a particular county one should note that citizens sometimes crossed over county lines to enroll in a particular company.

Determining a veteran's military service should normally be the first of two steps. The second step will entail examination of bounty land and pension applications. Bounty land acts were passed by Congress in 1850 and 1855; pensions were approved in 1871 and 1878. Applications and related correspondence are contained in files held at the National Archives. In these files you may find some or all of the following: military unit, place of residence, summary of military service, age, and in the case of the widow or other heirs, additional information may have been furnished such as: physical description of the militiaman at the time of his enrollment, date of his birth, date and place of marriage, names of former wives, date and place of veteran's death, names of surviving children, dates of birth of the children, and affidavits of acquaintances who attested to the veteran's military service, marriage and death. You may request copies of the files from the National Archives by mail. This volume will be useful in identifying the individual's military organization, enabling you to include the name of the captain and his regimental colonel or lieutenant colonel in the submission of your request. Abstracts of bounty land claims and pension applications of Caroline County veterans (and a few others) are included in the latter part of this volume.

We are called on for a Surgeons Mate, from ren... (?) I believe we are without any such officer, I have sent forward recommendations for two, if either of them should be appointed, I shall then furnish you with the name of the person who is to serve on this tour of Duty - some little alteration will perhaps be made by Substitutes being procured, of this you shall have the necessary information. Dorchester County - Extra Battalion Artillery Company

Oct 19 - 22 1814/"Dear Sir, William Flint's account you have inclosed in mine, & the cause of its existence was, on Wednesday morning the 19th inst. when we found the enemy approaching us, expresses were immediately sent out to the filed officers to order in their men and the 22 as stated in Flint's account arrived in Cambridge about dusk the same evening, and as a Contractor was not provided with provision to furnish them with the rations they were sent to the tavern - - and as there has no return been made for their rations I think you might with propriety pass his account for as much as the Law allows soldiers and as they were without their dinners until they arrived at Cambridge & were hungry I apprehend you might make an allowance for one day - The aforesaid men belong to Major James Patterson's Battalion and attached to the 48th Regiment." /All members served 4 days except when indicated/Charles K. Caroline County Bounty Land and Pension Applications

Most of the bounty land offered to the veterans of the War of 1812 was claimed under the acts of Congress enacted in 1850 and 1855. The following abstracts reveal genealogical information about the applicants: veterans, widows and minor children - and sometimes their friends and neighbors. Because federal pensions were not granted until later, in 1871 and 1878, only a relatively few applications were submitted.

Attempting to recall the names of officers after a lapse of 37 years or more, the veterans, and especially their widows, gave erroneous information. Stating the correct name of the Company Captain was usually essential to the obtaining of a bounty land warrant. Lack of sufficient service and the inability of the claims office to find the veteran's name on the rolls of a particular Captain were frequent reasons for rejection. The bounty land warrants were usually sold on the open market; they were rarely exercised by the applicant.

ALFORD, William/Private, company of Capt Samuel Slaughter, Apr 18 - 21 1813. Applied for bounty land Mar 1, 1852, age 57, residing in Philadelphia. Applied l Oct 9, 1856, age 66. Rejected. States he volunteered at Greensborough for the militia.

ANDREW, Michael/Private, company of Capt Henry Harris, May 11 - 16 1813. Applied for bounty land, residing in Caroline County, Jan 4, 1862. In his application he (recalled being drafted at Dick's Old Field in the company of Capt Henry Harris and later marched to Easton Maryland, transferred to the company of Capt Peter Willis and then marched to St. Michaels. Attorney Tilghman Hubbard later clarified Andrew's earlier statement to say that in May 1813 Michael Andrew was "first drafted and sent to Easton Talbot County under the command of Captain Henry Harris and was discharged from that company and then the company disbanded and in August following he was drafted again and sent to St. Michaels under Captain Elija Satterfield and after some days Captain Satterfield was discharged on account of disability and went home and his men were divided between the company of Captain Peter Willis and Captain James Rich." He said he was first assigned to Captain Willis Company and afterward transferred to Captain Rich's Company. This claim and a later one in 1862 were both rejected.

ANDREW, Nimrod/Private, company of Capt Elijah Satterfield, Aug 15 - 19 1813. Widow applied for bounty land Jan 17, 1857, stating he had served in the companies of Capt Satterfield and Capt Willis, confirmed in statements made in 1858 by veterans, William Wright (of C) and Newton Andrew. A bounty land warrant for 160 acres was awarded. However the pay roll of Willis' company does not list Nimrod Andrew. According to widow he was drafted at Collison Cross Road Aug 1813. Her previous name: Euphamy Patterson. In her claim Jan.17, 1857 she was age 72, residing in Caroline County. She married Nimrod Andrew Dorchester County Sep 1826 by Paul Conaway. Nimrod died 1842. Wit to application: William Todd residing in Caroline County, William Stevens residing in Dorchester County. Statements were submitted by William Wright (of C) aged 65 and Newton Andrew aged 68, both residing in Caroline County, that there were acquainted with Nimrod and Euphamy Andrew.

Index to Pension Claims made by men (or their widows) for service in Eastern Shore Militia Units during the War of 1812

Following is a list of persons who applied for pensions based on service in the War of 1812. These claims were made by men (or their widows) who served (or claimed they did) in the Maryland Militia from Eastern Shore counties (Caroline, Dorchester, Kent, Queen Anne's, Somerset, Talbot and Worcester). This listing is based on microfilm copies of the jackets (folders) which hold the files of the pension applications. The transcriptions were made by Virgil White's and published as Index to War of 1812 Pension Files, by The National Historical Publishing Company, Waynesboro, Tennessee (1992). With White's transcriptions as a starting point we have made corrections to the spelling of the names of applicants and the company captains and have attempted to identify them to specific companies. It is presumed that most if not all of these errors were made in the original files. [For example Capt Haubert was sometimes spelled as Capt. Hanbert, Captain Faster's name was always spelled as Foster.] Additional information can be found by requesting copies of the entire pension files or examining them first hand at the National Archives. This is strongly recommended. In some instances we have made assumptions to the man's service which may prove to be erroneous. Those men who claimed service in the Maryland Militia for which we were unable to identify to a specific unit are shown in volume 11 (miscellaneous). Most of the pension claims were made following the congressional enactments in 1871 and 1878. Earlier in 1850 and 1855 congress authorized the issuance of bounty land warrants of significant value on the open market. Many veterans and their widows applied for these warrants; these applications files are also preserved at the National Archives and should be consulted for their value in genealogical and military research.

The regiment shown is one of the regiments in which the individual probably served. He may have served in other regiments as well.
